Commendation

By the Mayor of Prattville, Alabama

WHEREAS, Mrs. Pinky Lou Davis Canady was born on September 1, 1922, in Booth, Alabama, to Mary and Jodie Davis; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Canady was a loving and faithful wife to her late husband, Army Retired M/Sgt. Floyd T. Canady for 53 long, loving years. Together they led an exemplary life and were loving parents who showered care, love and affection upon their daughter, Michele L. Canady and grandsons, Brandon and Braxton Canady; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Canady received her Bachelor's degree from Alabama State University and her Master's degree from Troy State Montgomery.

WHEREAS, Mrs. Canady taught for over 40 years in the State of Alabama and abroad. She has spent a lifetime enjoying enriching the lives of others and retired as a Special Education teacher from Prattville High School; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Canady thoroughly enjoyed being the wife of an Army Solider and traveling abroad. She enjoys baking, cooking, sewing, shopping, playing the piano, and singing in the choir at St. John's African Methodist Episcopal Church where she has faithfully served her Lord for approximately 50 years; and WHEREAS, family and friends are gathering together for a surprise celebration for Mrs. Canady's 90th birthday on September 1, 2012, at St. John's AME Church Life Center, Montgomery, Alabama.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bill Gillespie, Jr., Mayor of the City of Prattville, Alabama, do hereby PROCLAIM September 1st 2012, as in Prattville. And on the occasion of her 90th birthday, do wish for her good health and many more wonderful years with family and friends.

Given under My Hand and the Seal of the City of Prattville on the 1st Day of September 2012.

Mayor Bill Gillespie, Jr.
