

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR
PRATTVILLE, ALABAMA

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, LeNa' Powe was chosen by a panel of judges to represent the City of Prattville and Autauga County when they bestowed upon her the title of Miss Fountain City 2009; and

WHEREAS, as Miss Fountain City, she will compete for the title of Miss Alabama in Birmingham in June; and

WHEREAS, LeNa' not only possesses beauty, talent, poise and intelligence, but also a compassionate and caring spirit; and

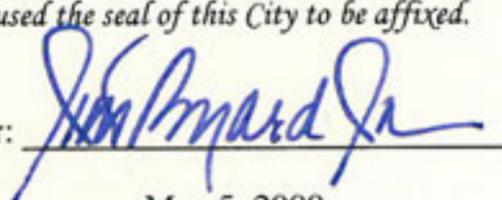

WHEREAS, LeNa', the daughter of Ms. Cassie Ferguson, has been involved in numerous other community service projects which earned her a nomination for a National Daily Point of Light Award, President's Community Service Award, and a Dean's Award of Merit from the University of Alabama.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jim Byard, Jr., Mayor of the City of Prattville, do hereby commend and congratulate this outstanding young woman for her commitment and service to her fellowman, for the high standards she has set for herself, and for her diligence in being an exemplary role model to young people. I therefore proclaim May 28, 2009 as in Prattville, and urge all citizens to join me at the Doster Center from 5:00-6:30 p.m. on that day to show our support to Miss Fountain City as she represents our city and county and competes in the Miss Alabama Pageant in Birmingham.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of this City to be affixed.

Mayor:
