

Proclamation

By the Mayor of Prattville, Alabama

WHEREAS, the City of Prattville is well known for having one of the best and most active remote control flying clubs in the nation; and

WHEREAS, today, the Fountain City Flyers Club, Hot Hobbies & RC, and the Boy Scouts of America will be hosting the City of Prattville's first annual "Fly-In" at The Exchange Shopping Center; and

WHEREAS, the Fountain City Flyers Club will be giving flying demonstrations with remote control airplanes and helicopters, and the event will have one of the largest unique remote control airplane and helicopter static displays in the south; and

WHEREAS, while celebrating their 100th anniversary, the Boy Scouts of America will be on hand collecting canned food goods for the River Region Community Food Bank.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Jim Byard, Jr., Mayor of the City of Prattville, Alabama, do hereby proclaim Saturday, April 3, 2010, as in Prattville and urge the citizens of Prattville to come out and support the Fountain City Flyers, and contribute to the Boy Scouts of America's food drive.

FOUNTAIN CITY FLYERS DAY

Given Under My Hand and the Seal of the City of Prattville on this 3rd day of April 2010.

Mayor Jim Byard, Jr.
