

Commendation

By the Mayor of Prattville, Alabama

WHEREAS, our nation has fought and continues to fight battles around the world. Let us solemnly remember the sacrifices of all those who fought so valiantly, on the seas, in the air and on the foreign shores to preserve our heritage of freedom, and let us consecrate ourselves to the task of promoting and enduring peace so that their efforts shall not have been in vain; and

WHEREAS, we have benefited from the contributions of those willing to depart the comforts of home to answer the call of duty and our citizens celebrate the service and sacrifice of these servicemen and women as we pay special tribute to these citizens; and

WHEREAS, the freedoms we enjoy as Americans have been purchased and maintained at a high price throughout our history; and

WHEREAS, we owe a great debt of gratitude to those who have served in defense of this nation.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Bill Gillespie, Jr., Mayor of the City of Prattville, Alabama, do hereby commend

Petty Officer 2nd Class Markie Moon

for her service and sacrifice during a 1-year tour in the Horn of Africa where she procured and assisted in shipment of 300 tons of food, water and supplies to Ethiopia, Kenya, Uganda, Tanzania and many other locations ensuring mission success. Markie reconciled accounts ensuring funds were available for mission support. She was the Director of Morale, Welfare & Recreation providing support with equipment to forward operating locations. She was the E-6 and Below Coordinator for the Enlisted Expeditionary Warfare Pin program. Markie is a living testimony to remind us what is important and what it means to be a hero.

Given Under My Hand and the Seal of the City of Prattville on the 19th day of June 2012.

Mayor Bill Gillespie, Jr.
