

Proclamation

By the Mayor of Prattville, Alabama

WHEREAS, emergencies can occur at any time that require police, fire, and emergency medical services; and

WHEREAS, when an emergency occurs the prompt response of police officers, firefighters, and paramedics is critical to the protection of life and preservation of property; and

WHEREAS, the safety of our police officers and firefighters is dependent upon the quality and accuracy of information obtained from citizens who telephone the Autauga County 911 Communications Center; and

WHEREAS, Public Safety Telecommunicators are the first and most critical contact our citizens have with emergency services; and

WHEREAS, Public Safety Telecommunicators are the single vital link for our police officers and firefighters by monitoring their activities by radio, providing them information and insuring their safety; and

WHEREAS, Public Safety Telecommunicators of the Autauga County 911 Communications Center have contributed substantially to the apprehension of criminals, suppression of fires, and treatment of patients; and

WHEREAS, each dispatcher has exhibited compassion, understanding, and professionalism during the performance of their job in the past year.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bill Gillespie, Jr., Mayor of the City of Prattville, hereby proclaim the week of April 14 through 20, 2013 to be in Prattville, Alabama.

NATIONAL PUBLIC SAFETY TELECOMMUNICATIONS WEEK

Given Under My Hand and the Seal of the City of Prattville on the 2nd day of April 2013.

Bill Gillespie, Jr.
Mayor Bill Gillespie, Jr.
