

Proclamation

By the Mayor of Prattville, Alabama

WHEREAS, last year one in every four of the 821,268 Alabamians living in poverty experienced legal problems, with the majority of these civil problems being consumer issues (creditor, utility non-payment, bankruptcy issues), health issues (Medicaid, government insurance, nursing home), family law issues (divorce, child support/custody, abuse), employment issues (unemployment benefits, pension, lost job), and housing issues (unsatisfactory repairs, foreclosure, eviction, poor living conditions); and

WHEREAS, 10.2% of the citizens of Prattville live in poverty; and

WHEREAS, each year the low-income citizens of Prattville lack access to legal assistance for their legal problems that are often critical to their safety and independence, forcing them to resolve complex legal problems on their own; and

WHEREAS, the need for legal aid in Alabama is dire, since unlike in the criminal defense system, funding for low-income Alabamians who need civil legal assistance has not yet been met, with the consequences being a lack of access to justice which is devastating for the poor and which weakens our democratic society as a whole; and

WHEREAS, there are fewer than 60 paid legal aid lawyers to serve more than 422,119 low-income households in the State of Alabama; and

WHEREAS, although 18% of the members of the Autauga County legal community donated their time and talents in free legal services each year, a huge unmet need for legal assistance remains for the disadvantaged in our area; and

WHEREAS, sponsored by the Alabama State Bar and its Pro Bono Celebration Task Force, with support from local bar associations state wide, Pro Bono Week 2013 will educate the public about the extensive work Alabama lawyers are doing donating their time to improve the lives of vulnerable members of our community, and will encourage more individuals in the legal community to get involved in pro bono work.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bill Gillespie, Jr., Mayor of the City of Prattville do hereby proclaim October 20 through 26, 2013 to be in Prattville, Alabama.

PRO BONO WEEK

Given Under My Hand and the Seal of the City of Prattville on the 1st day of October 2013.

Bill Gillespie Jr.

Mayor Bill Gillespie, Jr.
