

Proclamation

By the Mayor of Prattville, Alabama

WHEREAS, epilepsy is a medical condition that produces seizures affecting a variety of mental and physical functions; and

WHEREAS, epilepsy and seizures affect millions of people across the United States; and

WHEREAS, there is currently no cure for epilepsy. Many of those diagnosed can control their seizures with medicine and surgical techniques; and

WHEREAS, epilepsy is among the least understood major chronic medical condition and people with epilepsy face social stigmatization and discrimination; and

WHEREAS, all citizens are encourage to learn more about the symptoms and treatment of seizures to better understand epilepsy, and the many individuals, families, and communities epilepsy impacts.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bill Gillespie, Jr., Mayor of the City of Prattville do hereby proclaim November 2013

EPILEPSY AWARENESS MONTH

in Prattville, Alabama.

Given Under My Hand and the Seal of the City of Prattville on the 21st day of November 2013.

Bill Gillespie Jr.

Mayor Bill Gillespie, Jr.