

Commendation

By the Mayor of Prattville, Alabama

WHEREAS, PASS provides programs for families, teens, and parents that are designed to educate the community about substance abuse and improve relationships; and

WHEREAS, PASS began at Prattville High School in 1988 after the death of one of its seniors, Michael Nobles. Michael was killed by a drunk driver and students organized the program in his honor; and

WHEREAS, in 1996, PASS became a county wide program and works under the umbrellas of a youth and adult coalition made up of community leaders, citizens, and youth; and

WHEREAS, in 2002 PASS was recognized as Community Anti-Drug Coalition of the Year by Community Anti-Drug Coalitions of America; and

WHEREAS, PASS and its partners have worked tirelessly for the past 25 years to reduce the risk of substance abuse among youth and build relationships between families.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bill Gillespie, Jr., Mayor of the City of Prattville do hereby commend

PASS

for its 25 years of service to the teens, parents, and families, of the City of Prattville, Alabama.

Given Under My Hand and the Seal of the City of Prattville on the 12th day of December 2013.

Bill Gillespie Jr.
